EXAMINATION REGULATIONS AND GUIDELINES

These guidelines for regulating Conduct of the Examination have been extracted from SAUT Examination Regulations as provided in the Prospectus, Students' By – Laws 2001

1. Preamble

These guidelines regulate Conduct of the Examination at SAUT. The Examination Regulations have been extracted from the SAUT Prospectus, 2009/2010 and from Students' By-Laws 2001. Other provisions have been added after the approval of the fifteenth Senate in August 2010.

2 Conduct of Examinations

- 2.1 University examinations shall be conducted under Deputy Vice for Chancellor Academic Affairs Office, or such other officer of the University as may be appointed.
- 2.2 The Deputy Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, shall have power to issue such instructions, notes or guidelines to candidates, invigilators and examiners of University examinations as he/she shall deem appropriate for the proper, efficient and effective conduct of such examinations.
- 2.3 The instruction notes or guidelines issued by the Deputy Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, under regulation 2.1 shall form part of and be as binding as these Regulations.

3 Specific Examination Regulations for Candidates

These instructions should be read together with University General Examination Regulations.

- 3.1 Candidates should make sure that they have been issued Examination Numbers before examinations begin.
- 3.2 Candidates shall be responsible for consulting the Examination Time Tables for any changes.
- 3.3 Candidates shall be seated 15 minutes before starting time, and no student shall be allowed into the examination room after the starting time, except for a compelling reason.
- 3.4 Candidates must not begin writing before they are told to do so by the Invigilator.
- 3.5 Candidates are allowed to carry only pens, pencils or other materials explicitly prescribed by the Department or in the particular examination instructions

- 3.6 Candidates are not allowed to enter the examination room with books, mobile phones, handbags, clipboards, purses, papers, magazines and/or other such items. They may use their own calculators, or use the department's logarithmic tables as instructed.
- 3.7 In case candidates are allowed to come with specified items into the examination room, no borrowing from one another shall be allowed during the examinations. Items allowed into the examination room shall be liable to inspection by the invigilator.
- 3.8 Each answer in an examination shall begin on a fresh page of the examination booklet. All rough work must be done in the booklet and crossed out. Candidates are not allowed to sign their names anywhere in the examination booklet.
- 3.9 All candidates shall observe silence in the examination room
- 3.10 Candidates are not allowed to write anything in their question papers.
- 3.11 No food or drink shall be allowed into the examination room
- 3.12 Invigilators shall have power to specify or change the sitting arrangement in the examination room; or to require inspection of a candidate; or to confiscate any unauthorised material brought into the examination room; and shall have power to expel and report from the examination room any candidate who creates a disturbance and record the incident to the Head of Department.
- 3.13 In case of alleged cheating or any other examination irregularity, the candidate and one or more Invigilators shall be required to sign an Examination Incident Form which, together with other signed exhibits, as the case may be, and the candidate's examination booklet, shall be submitted to the Head of Department.
- 3.14 A candidate caught contravening the Examination Regulations shall not be allowed to continue with the examination for which he/she is sitting, but will not be barred from other examinations for which he/she is scheduled.
- 3.15 Candidates are strongly warned that cheating or being caught with unauthorised material contravenes the University General Examination Regulations and leads to discontinuation from studies.
- 3.16 All candidates shall sign the Attendance Form at the beginning and end of every examination.
- 3.17 No candidate shall be permitted to enter the examination room after a lapse of thirty minutes from the commencement of the examination and no candidate will be allowed to leave his/her place during the examination, except as indicated below.

- 3.20 A candidate who walks out of an examination in protest shall be disqualified from that particular examination.
- 3.21 At the end of the examination period, and on instruction from the invigilator, candidates must stop writing and assemble their scripts, which they should personally hand to the invigilator. They shall remain seated until all are allowed by the invigilator to leave.
- 3.22 Candidates are not allowed to take any examination material out of the examination room, unless specifically permitted by the invigilator.
- 3.23 Students who are required to do supplementary examinations or special examinations will be officially notified using their respective Examination Number on the University's notice board and website at www.saut.ac.tz or through any public means of communication. Students should also leave their latest contacts such as telephone numbers or emails to facilitate communication.
- 3.24 Students must understand that the ultimate responsibility for taking the supplementary examinations precisely at the time when they are given rests with the student.

4 Guidance for Invigilators

Heads of Departments shall be responsible for ensuring that examinations are prepared and conducted in a strictly confidential manner.

4.1 Before the Examination

- (i) Invigilators should personally collect from the Examination Office sealed envelopes containing question papers and any other material prescribed in the rubrics at least thirty minutes before the examination.
- (ii) Invigilators shall be present in the examination room at least twenty minutes before the commencement of the examination.
- (iii) Invigilators should admit candidates to the examination room at least fifteen minutes before the commencement of the examination and ensure that students take the right places.

- (iv) During these fifteen minutes the invigilator should;
  - (a) Make an announcement to the effect that unauthorised materials are not allowed in the examination room.
  - (b) Make an announcement to the effect that candidates should satisfy themselves that they are in possession of the correct paper.
  - (c) Tell the students to note any special rubric at the head of the paper.
  - (d) Tell students when they may begin writing. Candidates will normally be allowed five minutes to read the paper.

4.2 During the Examination

- (I) Invigilators should not admit candidates to the examination room after thirty minutes have elapsed from the commencement of the examination and should not permit candidates to leave the examination room until one-hour has expired.
- (ii) By the end of thirty minutes from the commencement of the examination, the Invigilators should have a written list on the Examination Attendance Sheet of the names of all the candidates present.
- (iii) Invigilators should ensure that only one answer-book is provided for each candidate.
- (iv) Candidates may be permitted to do rough work in the examination booklet on the understanding that rough work is crossed out.
- (v) Invigilators shall report immediately after the examination to the Head of Department any candidate who contravenes the Examination Regulations and Instructions, especially by unfair practices
- (vi) In case of alleged examination irregularity, the Invigilator shall require the candidate to sign an Examination Incident Report and any other materials pertinent to the incident to confirm that they are his/hers. The Invigilator also shall sign and submit to the Head of the Department the Examination Incident Report, together with the candidate's examination booklet and all pertinent materials.
(A candidate caught contravening the Examination Regulations shall not be allowed to continue with the examination for which he/she is sitting, but will not be barred from other examinations for which he/she is scheduled)

- (vii) The Head of the Department through the Faculty Dean will submit a full written report on the incident to the Corporate Counsel.
- (viii) The processing of an alleged case of cheating or other irregularity shall be carried out as expeditiously as possible.

4.3 At the End of Examination

- (i) Invigilators shall tell the candidates to stop writing and assemble their examination scripts.
- (ii) Invigilators shall not permit the candidates to leave their places before their scripts have been collected.
- (iii) Candidates shall sign the Examination Attendance Sheet when they turn in their script.
- (iv) Invigilators shall enter the number of candidates' scripts collected and/or received on the Attendance Sheet and sign it
